

Lai-King Hum appointed as a member to the new Condominium Authority Tribunal

The Condominium Authority Tribunal (CAT) of Ontario - one of Canada's only online dispute resolution systems - opened its doors, so to speak, just before midnight on November 1, 2017. Announced as the first members of the Tribunal are:

CHAIR: Ian Darling (formerly ombudsman for Tarion Warranty Corporation)

VICE CHAIRS: Michael Clifton (founding partner, Clifton Kok LLP)
Patricia McQuaid (lawyer, mediator, Vice-Chair of LAT)

MEMBERS:

- Deborah Anshell (lawyer and Small Claims Court deputy judge)
- Nicole Aylwin (co-director of the Winkler Institute for Dispute Resolution, Osgoode Hall)
- Marc Bhalla (professional mediator and senior law clerk)
- Enza Buffa (professional adjudicator, mediator and licensed paralegal)
- Anne Gottlieb (lawyer, mediator, executive of the ADR Institute of Ontario)
- Lai-King Hum (lawyer and Small Claims Court deputy judge)
- Kathryn Kertesz (professional mediator)
- Angelique Palmer (lawyer, arbitrator, mediator, Assessment Hearings Officer Ont. Sup. Ct.)
- Laurie Sanford (lawyer, adjudicator, Vice-Chair of LAT, member Animal Care Review Board)
- Mary Ann Spencer (member of LAT, previously executive at OSC and OHRC)